King's Cross Underground station is a passenger railway terminus in the London Borough of Camden, in Central London Zone 1. It is one of London's busiest stations as it serves as an interchange between the Northern, Piccadilly, Circle, Victoria and Hammersmith & City lines. Adjacent to King's Cross Railway Station is St Pancras International, the London terminus for Eurostar services to continental Europe. Beneath both main line stations is King's Cross St. Pancras tube station on the London Underground; combined they form one of the country's largest transport hubs.

Situated in the walkway between the Western and Northern ticket halls, this unit attracts high footfall. The unit has good prominence and benefits from glass frontage.
